Smoking rains onry remained of the plant of the East Killingly Worsted com-pany Monday after the fire that started shortly after 8 o'clock Sunday evening had raged for hours, lighting the sky and showering sparks for a half nile or more about, endangering numbers of more about, endangering numbers of homes, but setting none of them aftre.

The fire simply raced through the mill and fed on whatever was combustible until it burned itself out. Not a hand was raised to check the fire, not because scores who were present were unwilling, but because of the futility that would be but because of the futility that would be but because of the effort. A plentiful support of the bride, who is nearing the mark of three score and ten.

Following the marriage ceremony, the party was entertained at dinner, there says attached to the effort. A plentiful sup-ply of water was in the stream from ing out through the window openings, stood up stannohly after the fire, and a man whose judgment is good in such matters said Monday that, in his opinion, the walls for three stories up withstood the heat well. If the damaged top story stone is removed and the building re-roofed it will again be available for some manufacturing purposes. But the walls are all that remained of a mill that at one time many years ago gave employment to more than 100 people. The ruined mill had been fenced off by

Monday afternoon and notices warning trespassers to keep off had been posted. These precautions were taken to guard against inury to over-inquisitive persons who might be hurt in prowling about the

A quiet but delightful wedding occurred in the afternoon at 1 o'clock on Thanksgiving day at the home of Postmaster and Mrs. W. Franklin Sheldon, Highland street, Moosup, when their daughter, Miss Grace Lydia, was united in marriage to Lester Ray Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Craig of Winter street, Dan-

Both Mr. and Mes. Craig are young people, well and favorably known in this and surrounding towns, where a wealth of congratulations and best wishes are being extended by many admiring friends.

Here is an important announcement: The annual effort to dispose of Red Cross Christmas seals is now in full swing in Danielson. To some this may seem like mighty uninteresting reading, but the fact is that it is about as important a subject as will be called during the Christmas season to the attention of those who have any concern whatsoever for their suffering fellowmen. The seals are now on sale, and the country over these pretty little devices on the mail and Christmas packages of any nan or woman are a mark of distinction. in that they are indicative of the good-ness of heart of those who use them that some wan and wasting human being may have a chance of regained health and the pursuit of happiness.

Here in Danielson 35 per cent. of the oney obtained from the sale of the seals oes into the hands of the Civic federa-on for use in maintaining its tuberculosis clinic, which has been of great aid to many sufferers, and will continue to be if a generous public does not forget in this Christmas period.

The attention of the public is directed to the fact that W. S. Brown is continuing to deliver milk from a tuberculin tested herd to consumers in Danielsot for 10 cents per quart.—adv.

Upwards of 200 patients have been reated in a year by the Civic federation's claims. The federation buys eggs and milk for tubercular patients who themselves cannot afford these commodities, even to aid them through a death-threatening sickness. The federation has purchased as high as 1,500 quarts of milk in great quantities. Buy, your Christmas seals today. Use them on all letters and packages. You can help wonderfully if you will, and those in charge of the drive are hoping that you will not forget them. The seals are on sale in stores in the borough and also are obtainable from school children.

Chief John McFarland was giving his attention on Monday to an effort intended to establish the whereabouts of two young couples who have been staying at a hotel here recently and departed without the formality of paying their room rent or for meals they obtained in a res-taurant near the hotel. Mr. and Mrs. N. Miller, registered as from Newton, Mass. and Miss Gladys Norell and William Duncall, registered from Boston, are the oung people that Chief McFarland would like to locate.

The young men first put in an appear ance here about four weeks ago, obtained work and remained for a time, and later

It doesn't require any supernatural power to select a gift that will be SURE to please a man-simply a little good judgment.

Recall that a man has a practical nature. Remember that he likes things that are practical. Then it will be quite natural for you to choose your gift at a Man's Store, like ours, where "is it practical?" is the first test of everything we have for men.

Our Christmas stocks are wonderfully complete and interesting. We know you'll enjoy a visit here. It will save you a lot of worrying about what to give to men on your list.

Come any time, but we hope you can come soon, for assortments are so much more complete just now than they will be

A nearly new and valuable motor truck owned by Asa Passmore of East Killingly was taken out of the East Killingly Wor-sted company's garage, where the machine was stored, just prior to the fire of Sunday night, and Mr. Passmore has been congratulated on his good fortune in saving the vehicle.

As showing the density of traffic on the new state highway between Danielson and Providence, general mention is being made of the fact that some man who happened along in his car had to haul the machine off the highway and voluntarily install himself as a traffic officer to straighten out a tangle of machines on Sunday at Chop Mist hill, where the new
